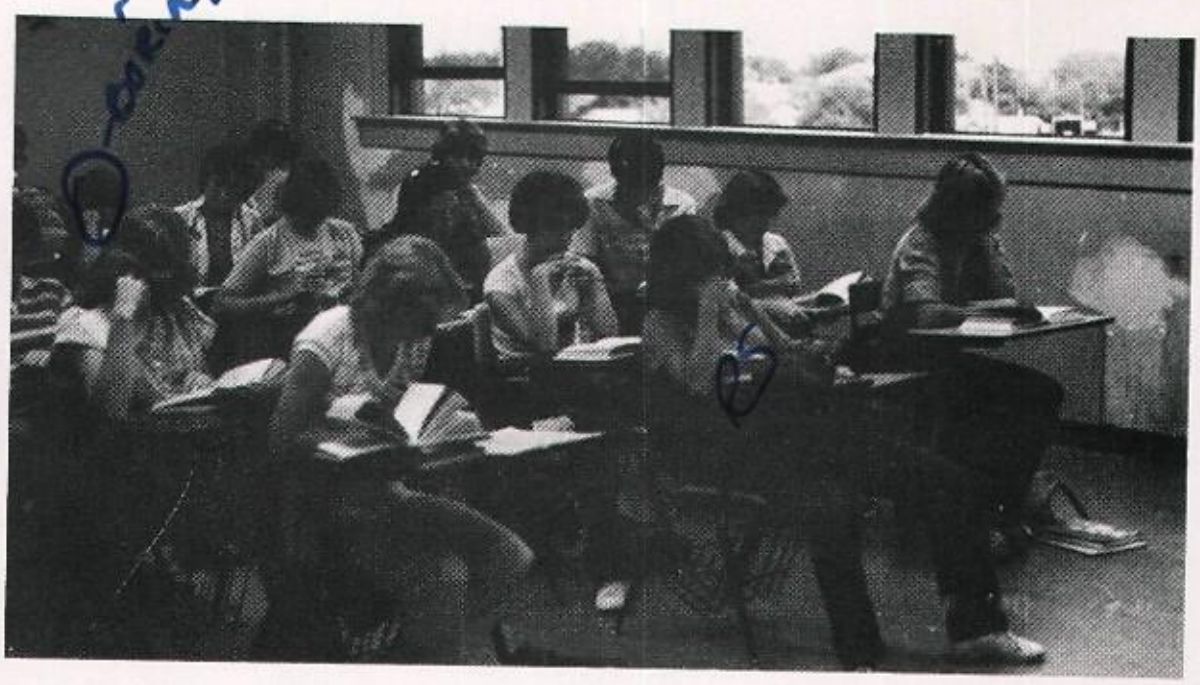
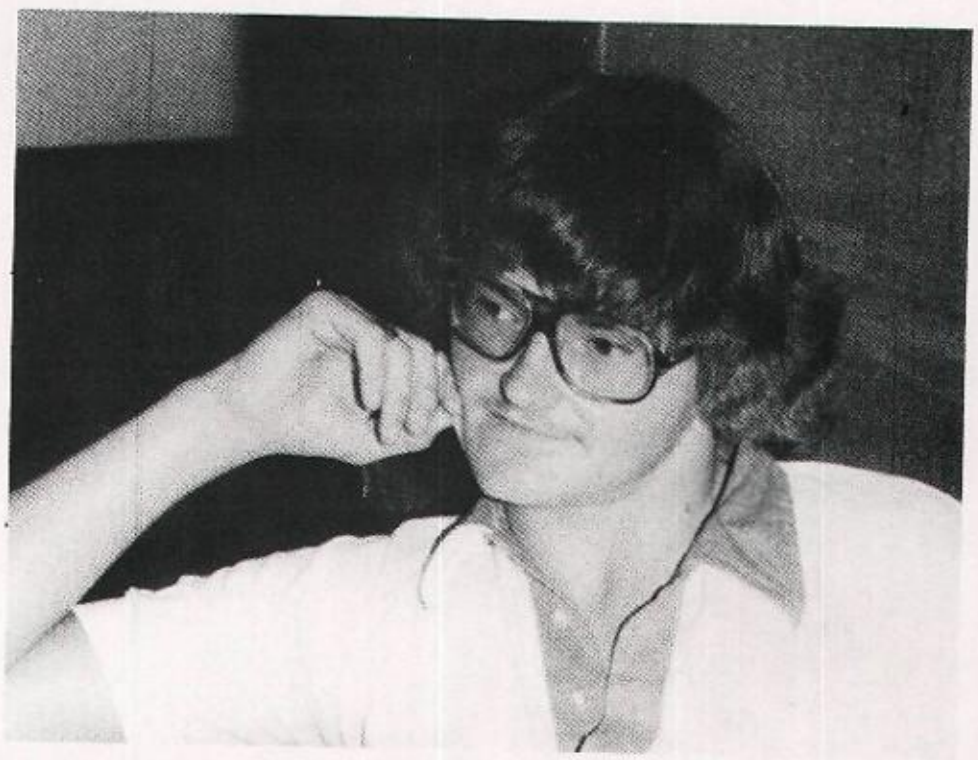
CLASSROOM LIFE AT EHS

The first four months of school were filled with the noises of drills, jack hammers, and saws. The sound of remodeling made the learning process difficult, but at the end of school we were presented with a new school.

With classes cut short and tempers even shorter, teachers and students melted under the 1980 Texas heatwave.



A typical morning class in Senior English.

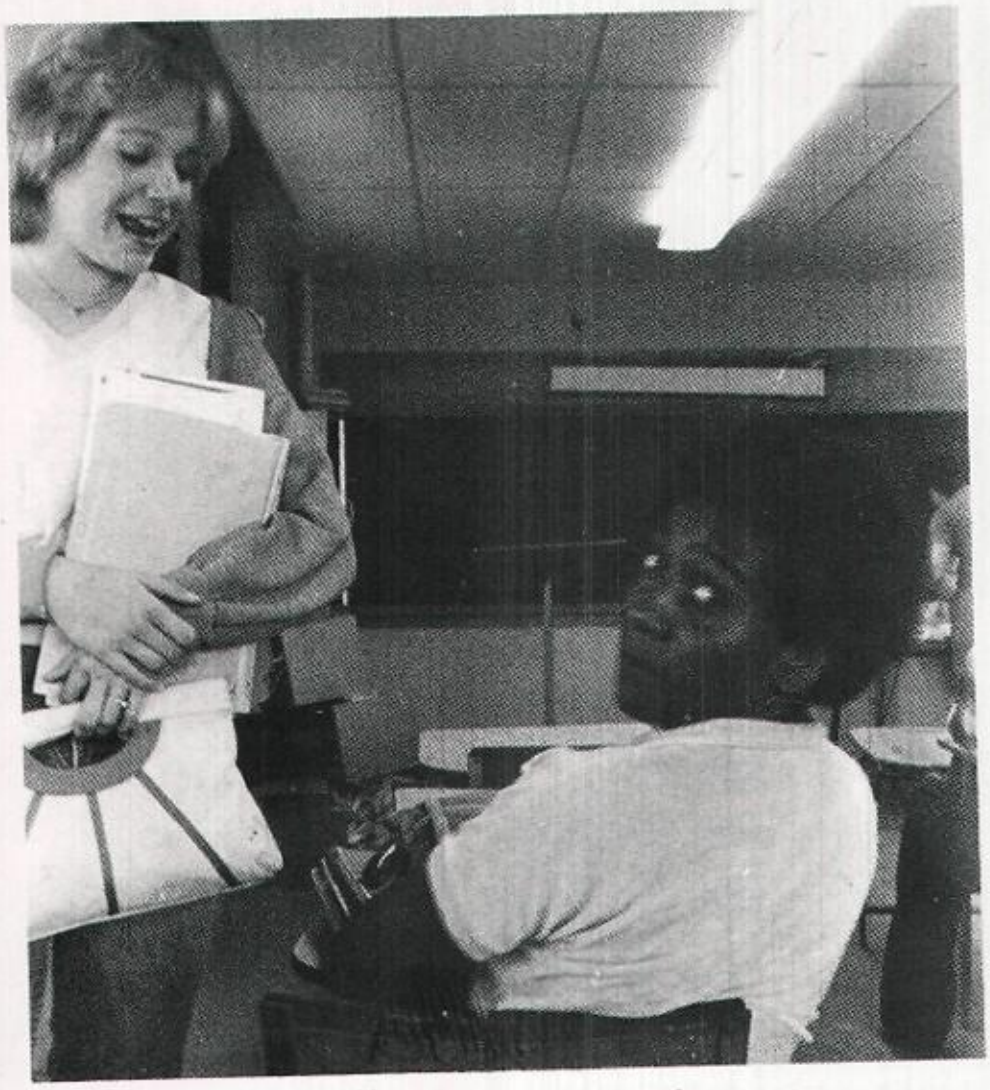


Just think, right now I could be sleeping.

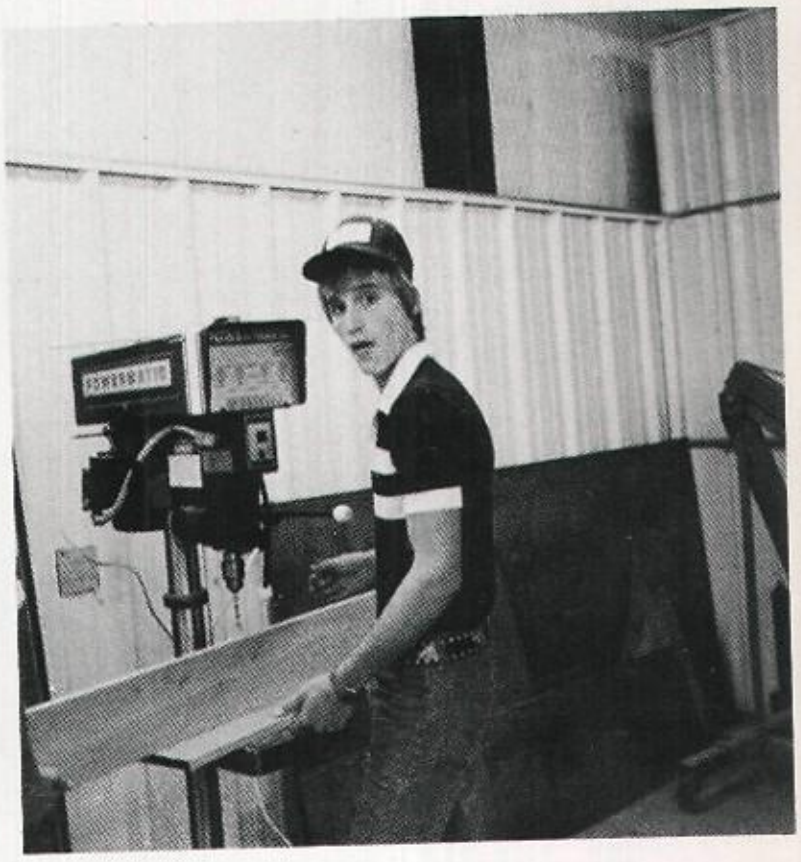
Watch out for that knife, Deanna!

Rita Stephens checks out the ears while Jimmy Thomas continues the papering.

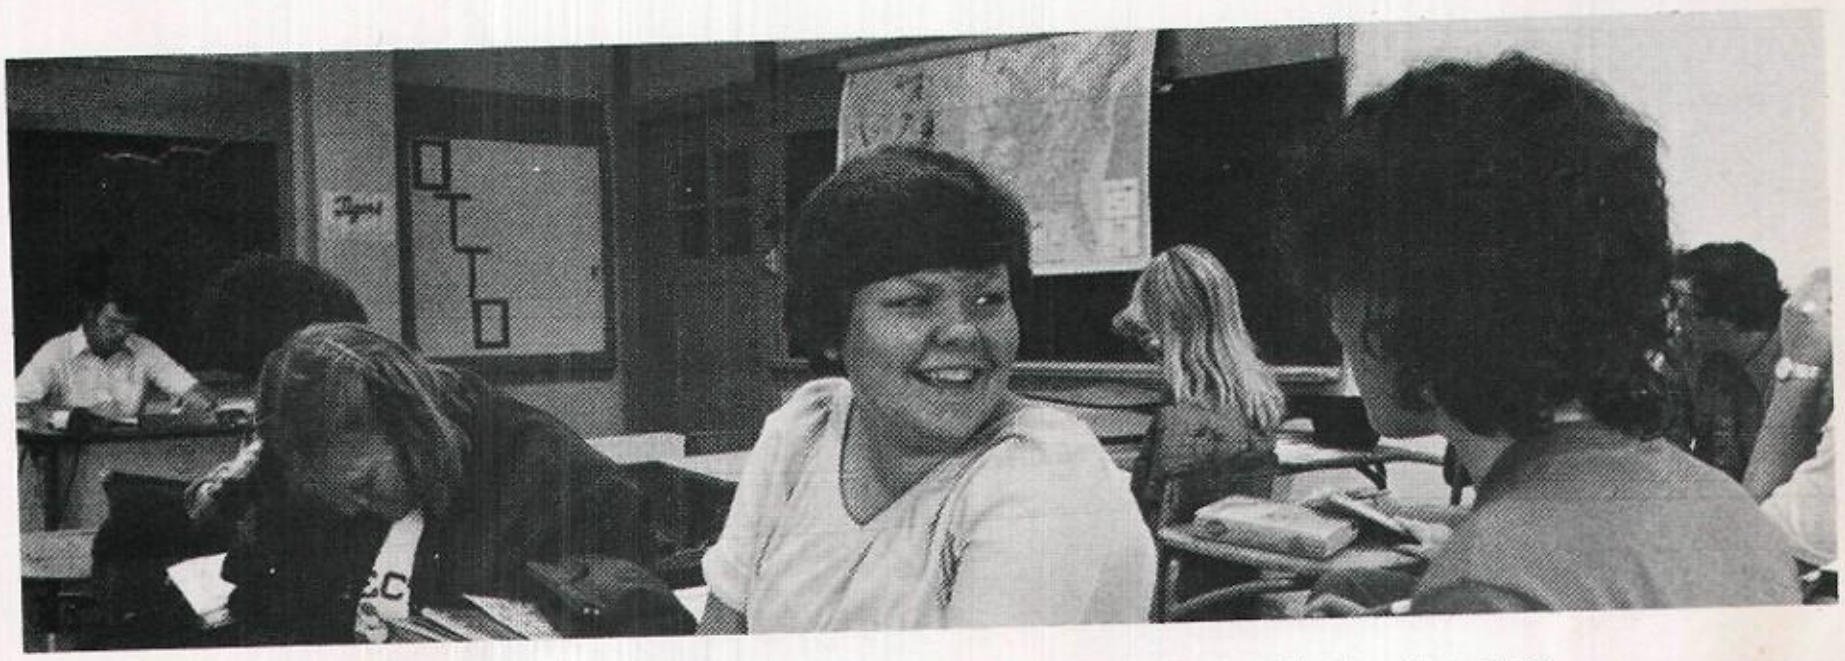
Miss Ditto times David Teaff during photography class.



Trudy Austin watches while Mary Lott gives us her evil eye.



You mean I can't make a toothpick out of this?



Andrea Willis, Stacy Wages, and Donna Irby seem to enjoy Coach McNew's civics class.

The Many Faces of EHS.

This is Tiger Stomping Ground!

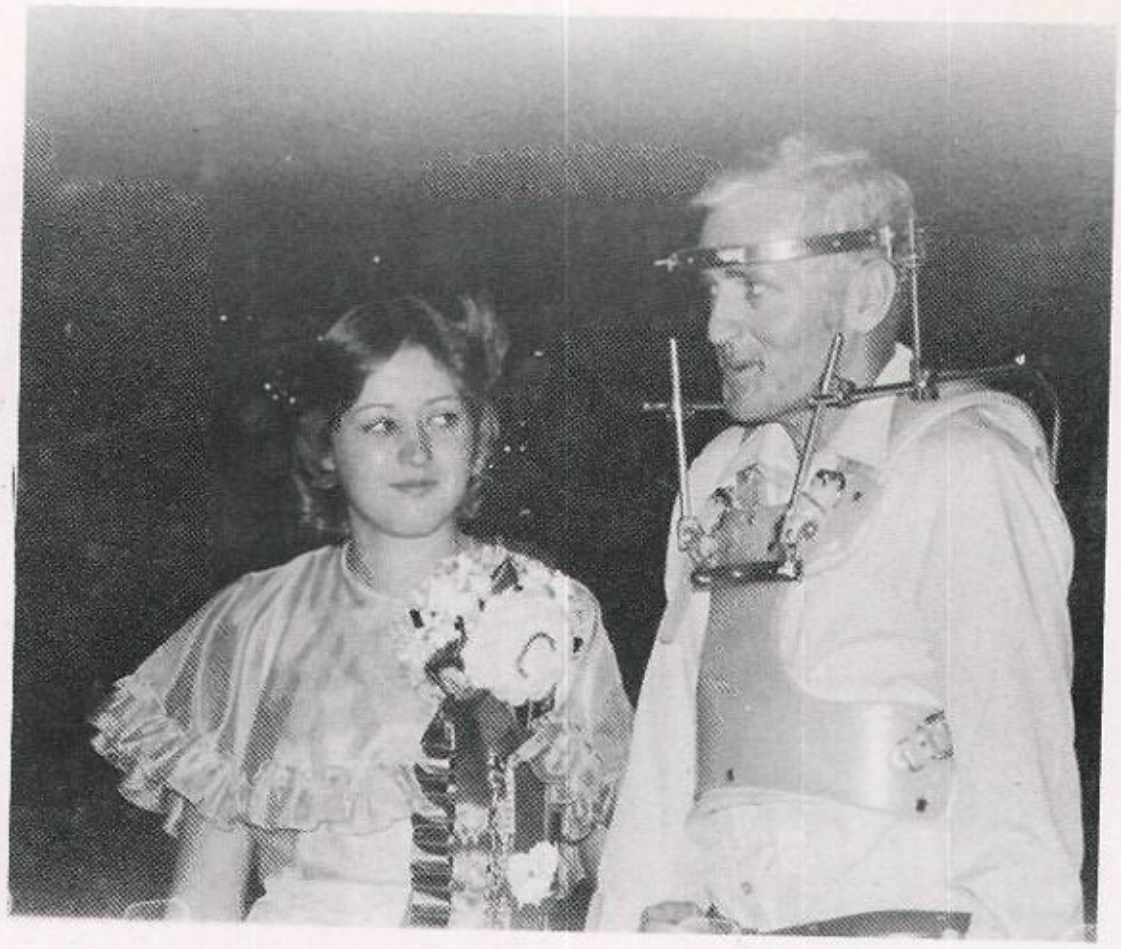
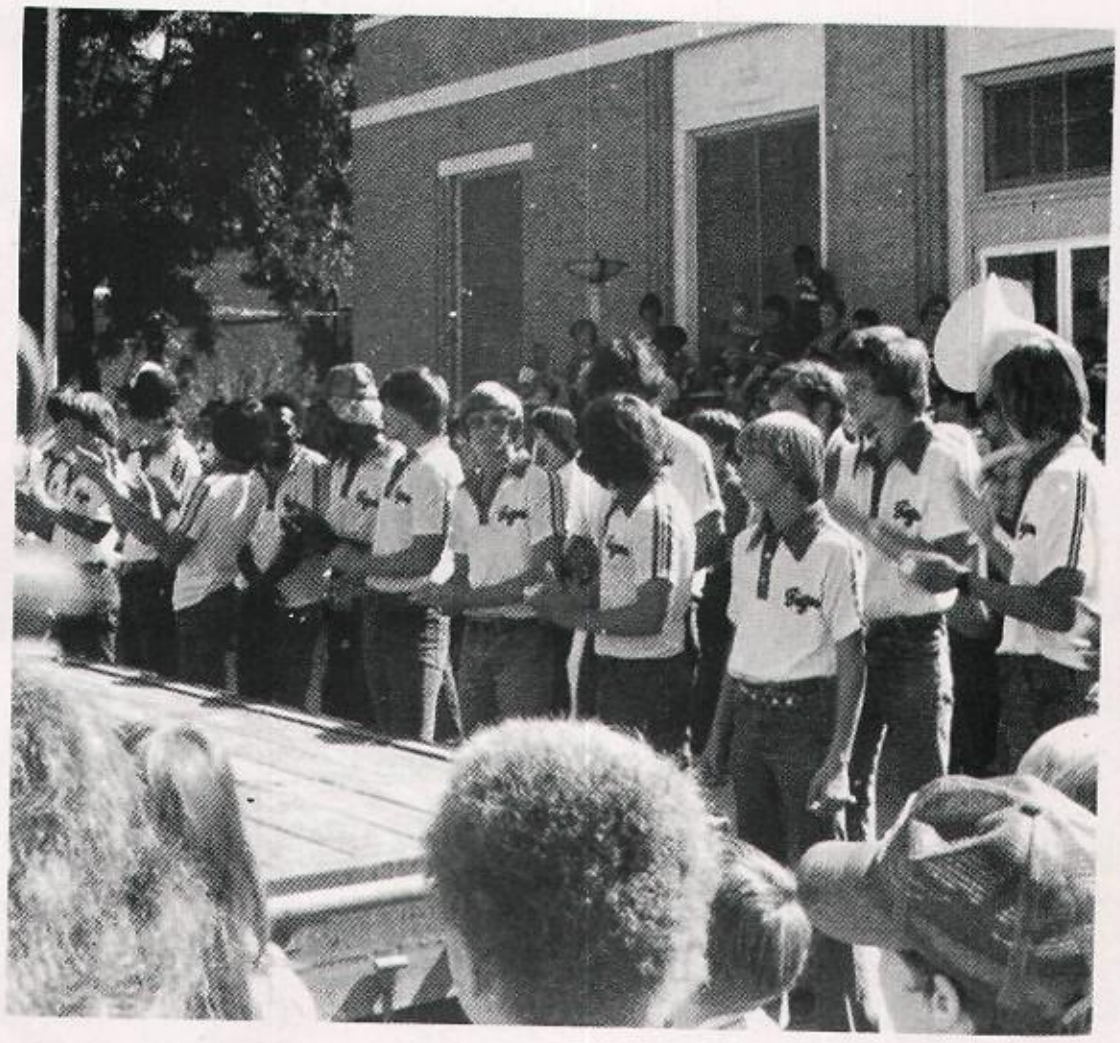
HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

Homecoming 1980 was October 3rd. The festivities began on Monday with Sock Day. The rest of the week was filled with other dress-up days like, Tacky Day, Red and White Day, 50's Day, and Tiger Day. The climax came on Friday when the whole school marched downtown to participate in the Homecoming Parade. A new theme was tried this year by decorating cars instead of floats. The Seniors won with their colorful and creative "Mogul-eating" Tiger. Kim Thompson was crowned Homecoming Queen 1980-81.



Carrie and her dad await the decision.

The Tiger band awaits their command to march.



The Tigers add their pep to the rally.

The cheerleaders ended the parade downtown.

J.V.'s- Team on the Move

The Electra J.V.'s showed promising athletic abilities. Their successful season ended in an upset that could have awarded them the J.V. District title. Tigerettes End Exciting Season

The Tigerettes ended their 1980-81 season with a 9-18 record and 1-7 record in district.

The Tigerettes played good ball throughout the year but a lack of height and inexperience hurt them. The Tigerettes will be losing only three seniors this year.

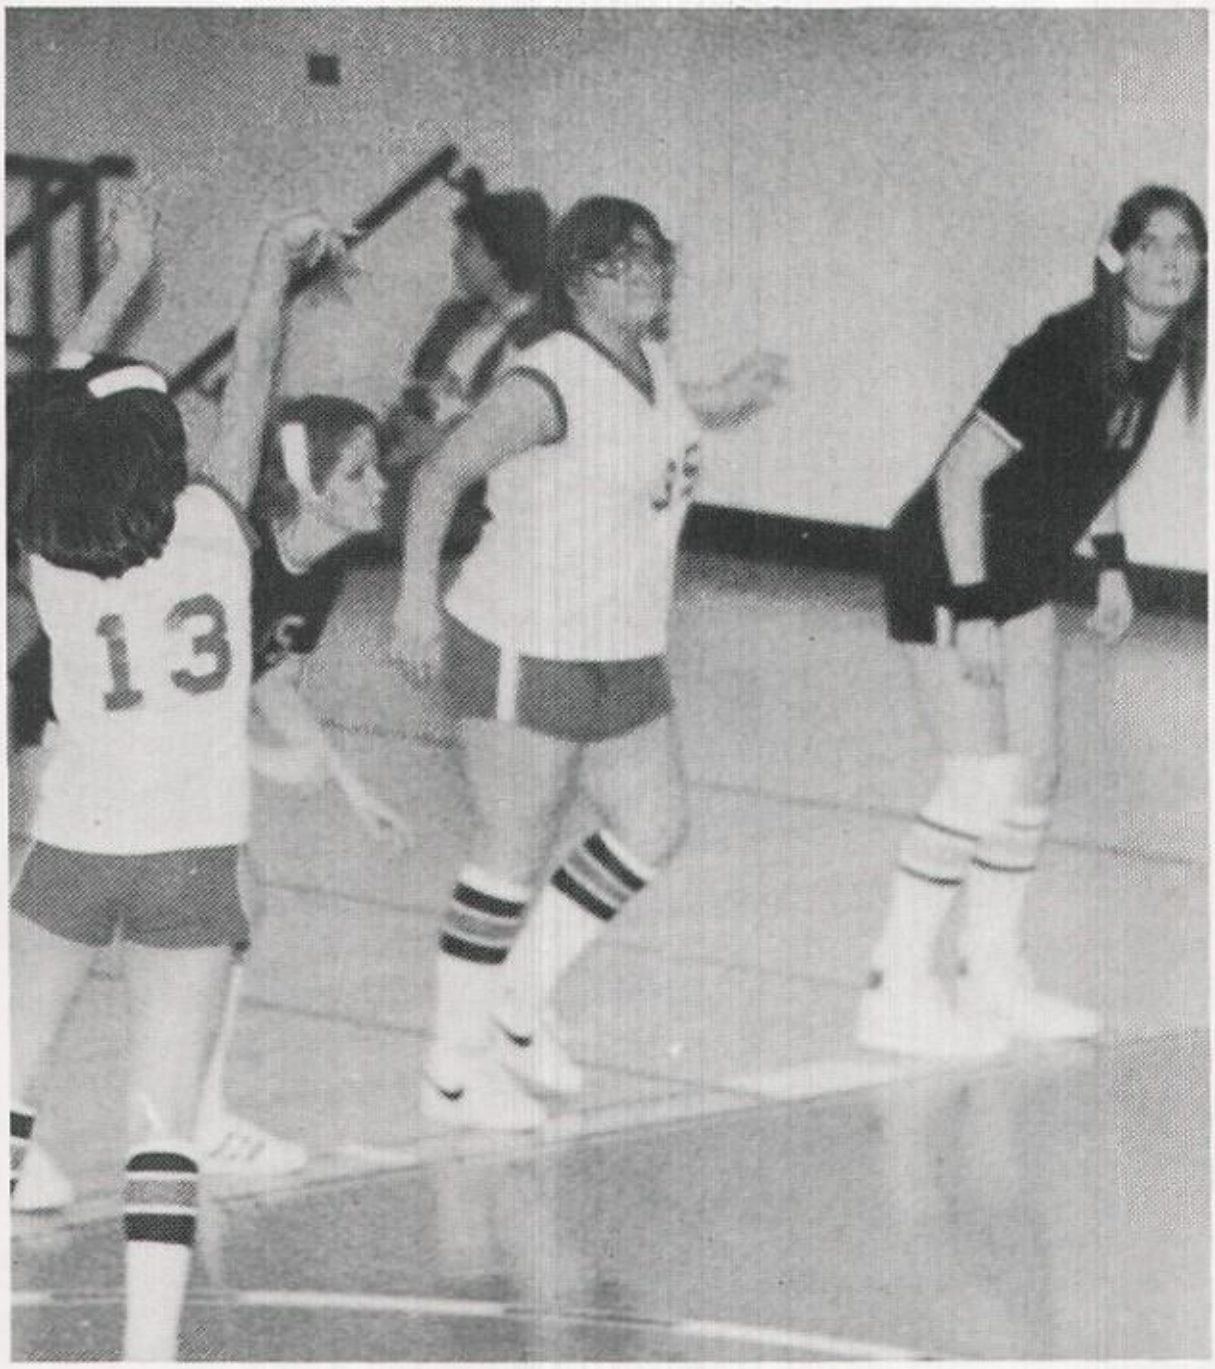
J.V.'s Shoot For Two

Even though the team number was small in size, the J.V. girls were big in spirit. With only six girls on the team, all sophomores, the players did not get very much time to rest during games.

Kathy Richardson, Sarita Fletcher, Tracy Moerbe, Debbie Lemon, Cathy Cranford, Judy Walser



Freshman — On The Way Up

The Freshman girls started out with a strong season against opponents from larger districts. They gained much experience for future playing on J.V. and Varsity teams.

Cagers Generate Excitement

The Tigers met some formidable opponents in the 1980-81 basketball season. Since only two seniors won't be returning, the prospects look promising for an ever better record next year. The Tigers ended the season with an 11-17 record.

Hail to thee Our Alma
Mater
Of beloved fame.
For Electra we will gather
Honor to thy name.
Spirit of those heroes past
Upon us dwell today
We will glory in Electra's
Might for aye.
Hail Electra's Alma Mater
Love we and adore thee
Serve we always in thy
Pathway, loyally.

Fight Song

We're fighting Tigers
Rarin' to go,
A happy and fighting throng.
True to Electra, We'll
Never go wrong,
As we cheer our boys to win.
Rah! Rah!
Come on, let's fight all together
With all of our might
Fight till the victory is won
For we'll cheer for Electra
And fight for her glory
Come on, boys,
Come on, boys,
LET'S FIGHT!
